

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE MIDDLE COMMON ROOM
STANDING ORDERS

Last Updated: October 2018

The Standing Orders of the Middle Common Room of University College

These standing orders shall govern the Middle Common Room of University College in the University of Durham as a Durham Student Organisation in compliance with the Durham Student Organisation framework.

Contravention of the same shall lead to the sanctions described herein.

The MCR is a formally constituted common room of University College in the University of Durham, and is recognised and ratified by the Governing Body and the College authorities. As a common room it enjoys independence of the Senior and Junior Common Rooms.

I. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply throughout this document.

1. Hereinafter the Middle Common Room of University College in the University of Durham shall be referred to as 'the MCR'. The Junior Common Room and Senior Common Room of the same shall be referred to as 'the JCR' and 'the SCR' respectively.
2. Hereinafter the Durham Students Union shall be referred to as 'the D.S.U'.
3. In statu pupillari:
An undergraduate or postgraduate member of the College, registered for a full or part time course of study in accordance with the General Regulations of the University.
4. Property of the MCR:
Shall include all physical resources owned, rented by, and loaned to the MCR and all financial assets, which shall include all monies owed to the MCR and in MCR accounts.
5. The MCR's facilities:
Include the common room (the Maurice Tucker Room at the foot of the Keep Stairs), and the resources contained therein.

II. MEMBERSHIP AND PRIVILEGES

1. All graduate members of College in statu pupillari who have paid the annual MCR membership fee for the current year and the Convenor of the MCR (as defined in section III.A.8) shall be deemed ordinary members of the MCR, subject to the clauses of these standing orders.
 - a) Ordinary members of the MCR shall be entitled to:
 - i) attend, speak, and vote at all full meetings of the MCR;
 - ii) use of the MCR's facilities;
 - iii) vote in all MCR elections; and
 - iv) hold office in the MCR.
 - b) Those members of the MCR who elect to join another common room within College shall cease to be ordinary members of the MCR.
2. Any member of the MCR may have both their membership removed and entitlements withdrawn, either temporarily (for a period no longer than a term) subject to majority decision by the Executive Committee, or permanently subject to majority decision by the Executive Committee and the consent of the Convenor of the MCR. Any member under consideration for permanent removal must be informed in writing and allowed to present a case in their defence before the Executive Committee decides the matter. In either case, any member subject to this action must be informed in writing of the outcome at the earliest opportunity. The member also has the right to appeal any decision to the Master.
3. All membership privileges are conditional on full payment of membership fees to the MCR. Membership fees are to be set by the Executive Committee in consultation with College Office.
4. Opting-In to Membership
 - a) All graduate members of College in statu pupillari have the opportunity to opt into MCR membership at the beginning of the term in which they are registered at the University. Students will be asked to opt into the MCR membership charges as part of the registration and enrolment process.
 - b) Members of College that choose to NOT opt into MCR membership will retain all rights and privileges afforded to graduate members of College in statu pupillari; however, they will forfeit all rights and privileges specifically afforded to ordinary members of the MCR.

III. EXECUTIVE & NON-EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

1. Term Limits
 - a) No MCR member shall serve more than two consecutive years in any combination of offices, executive and non-executive, without a one-year break.
 - b) For this purpose, a one-year break is defined as a full academic year. Meaning the time between Michaelmas term and Easter term.
2. With regard to the result of the vote proposed at the MCR Ordinary Meeting on 06/06/2018 and held on 06.-07/06/2018, members of the MCR Executive Committee should have top priority in the sign-up system for June Ball, superseding the degree-based system.

h) The Ball Chair of the MCR:

- i) responsibility for organising an annual ball for the College community;
- ii) responsibility for chairing the Ball committee;
- iii) acting as co-signatory of the MCR account.

9. The Convenor of the MCR

There shall also be a College Officer appointed by the Master in consultation with the MCR, who shall be responsible for the continuity of the MCR from one year to the next where necessary. They shall be empowered to hold an election for, or appoint, at the request and under the direction of the Executive Committee, a President and or/other executive officers in the event a President and/or other executive officers are not elected at the time specified by these standing orders, or in the event an executive officer resigns. In the event of any appointment, the appointee shall hold the appointed office until such a time as an election can be held.

B. NON-EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

1. The following is a list of non-executive officers of the MCR who shall be elected or selected from amongst the ordinary members:

- a. Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR;
- b. Castle Community Action (CCA) Representative of the MCR;
- c. MCR Adviser; and
- d. Bar Chair

2. The individual duties of the non-executive officers shall be as follows:

a) Internal Affairs Officer:

- i) responsible to the Executive Committee;
- ii) serve as an independent advisor to the Executive Committee;
- iii) responsible for the correct and fair administration of MCR elections, in accordance with the election regulations below in section V, and other ballots;
- iv) independently observe, ensuring fairness and validity under these standing orders, all MCR meetings (including those of the Executive Committee, in which they shall not be a sitting member or have the ability to vote);
- v) responsible for the drafting of any changes to these standing orders that are proposed by the Executive Committee; and
- vi) responsible for conducting all duties regarding these standing orders as outlined in section VIII.

b) Castle Community Action (CCA) Representative of the MCR:

- v) The member fulfilling this role should be decided by a vote by the incumbent (that is the outgoing, not newly elected) MCR Exec Committee and subsequently invited to fulfil the role. This Adviser has no voting power within the Executive Committee.

d) Bar Chair

- i) represent the interests of the MCR at Bar Committee;
- ii) act as the link between the bar team and the College Bar Management team;
- iii) unlike other MCR executive and non-executive officers, the Bar Chair is a paid position;
- iv) the Bar Chair is not voted for by members of the MCR but selected by College office in an official application process.
- v) More detailed information and a full job description may be found in the documents provided by College Office.

C. MCR COMMITTEES & COMMITTEE OFFICERS

The following is not an exhaustive list of the MCR committees and their officers. The officers for these committees shall be elected (or, should an election be unfeasible due to time constraints, lack of interest or other legitimate reason, selected) from amongst the given committee members. The duties of said officers shall be as follows:

1. Academic Committee of the MCR:

The Academic Committee, chaired by the Academic Officer of the MCR, shall organise academic events for the MCR throughout the year. These events shall include, but not be limited to, a casual seminar series for MCR members to discuss their work with each other, and a more formal lecture series for the presentation of MCR members' more complete or noteworthy research to a wider audience.

The Committee shall include the following positions:

a) Recruitment & Liaison Officer:

The Recruitment & Liaison Officer shall be responsible, with help from the rest of the Committee, for recruiting speakers or acquiring submissions for all academic events run by the Committee, and for liaising with such volunteers to provide them with all necessary information and receive everything required from them in a timely manner.

b) Publicity Officer:

The Publicity Officer shall be responsible for advertising all academic events ran by the Committee by all appropriate means.

2. Social Committee of the MCR:

The Social Committee, chaired by the Social Chair of the MCR, shall assist the Social Chair in the planning and execution of social events for the MCR, and for the wider College community, throughout the year.

3. Ball Committee of the MCR:

The Ball Committee, chaired by the Ball Chair of the MCR, shall organise an annual ball for the College community. The main operations of the Ball Committee shall be divided between the officers listed below.

The Committee shall include the following positions:

a) Ball Secretary:

The Ball Secretary shall undertake the day-to-day organisation of the Ball Committee and shall handle administration and regular liaison with the College Operations Manager.

b) Creative Director:

The Creative Director shall be responsible for the aesthetic elements of the ball.

c) Entertainment Director:

The Entertainment Director shall be responsible for the organisation and booking of entertainment for the evening.

d) Sponsorship Officer:

The Sponsorship Officer shall be responsible for procuring sponsorship for the ball.

e) Publicity Officer:

The Publicity Officer shall be responsible for advertising the ball.

4. Welfare Committee of the MCR:

The Welfare Committee, chaired by the Welfare Officer of the MCR, shall assist the Welfare Officer in carrying out their duties and in the provision of welfare events and services.

The Committee shall include the following positions:

a) Assistant Welfare Officer:

The Assistant Welfare Officer shall support the running of welfare events and shall serve as a second point of call for welfare issues.

b) International Students Representative:

The International Students Representative shall be a point of contact for international issues.

c) LGBT and Equality Representative:

The LGBT and Equality Representative shall address issues relating to sexuality and gender equality.

5. Induction Committee of the MCR:

The Induction Committee, co-chaired by the President and the Social Chair, shall organise a full programme of social, academic, and cultural events for the induction period.

The Committee shall include representatives as deemed necessary by the co-chairs.

6. Any other officers as deemed necessary by the chair of the given committee for a period of no longer than one year.

IV. MEETINGS OF THE MCR

1. The MCR Executive Committee, as far as possible in consultation with ordinary members, shall decide the time and place of all MCR meetings subject to any conditions described below.
2. Meetings shall be advertised not less than one week in advance by email, with the exception of emergency meetings as described below.
3. Agendas shall be circulated to members at least three days in advance of each meeting (with the exception of emergency meetings as described below) by the Executive Committee.
4. The quorum for a meeting shall be five per cent of the total number of full-time ordinary members of the MCR.
5. The President of the MCR shall normally chair each meeting. If the President is unable to chair the meeting a nominated deputy will chair the meeting in their stead. Elections that fall within a meeting shall always be chaired by the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR, or their nominated deputy should the Internal Affairs Officer be unavailable.
6. The Chair shall have a casting vote only when votes are equally numerically divided in balloted votes.

A. TYPES OF MCR MEETING

1. There shall be three categories of Meeting:
 - a) Ordinary;
 - b) Extraordinary; and
 - c) Emergency.
2. Ordinary meetings
 - a) There shall be a minimum of one ordinary meeting each Term.
 - b) All Officers, both Executive and Non-Executive, of the MCR shall be expected to attend and shall submit apologies for absence to the President, or their nominated delegate, in advance of the meeting if they are unable to attend.
 - c) Termly reports of the officers shall be published in written form with the agenda for the meeting.
 - d) The normal order of business on the agenda shall be:
 - i) apologies for absence;
 - ii) acceptance of and matters arising from the minutes of the previous meeting;
 - iii) reports of officers;
 - iv) ratifications;
 - v) elections;
 - vi) motions;

- vii) any other business;
- viii) close of meeting.

Points of order shall take priority at all times and shall be voted on immediately.

3. Extraordinary meetings

- a) Extraordinary meetings may be called by the Executive Committee to conduct business between ordinary meetings, when required by circumstances.

4. Emergency Meetings

- a) An emergency meeting may be called by any ordinary member on presentation to the President of the MCR of a petition bearing the signatures of at least ten per cent of ordinary members of the MCR calling for a specific item to be discussed.
- b) An emergency meeting shall be held within one week of the presentation to the President of the MCR of the petition for that meeting.
- c) Publicity for the emergency meeting shall be e-mailed to the MCR immediately.
- d) The order of the meeting shall be governed by the agenda for that particular emergency meeting.

B. MOTIONS

1. Ordinary members of the MCR can bring forward private motions. Any motion must have a proposer and seconder. Members wishing to table motions shall consult the Executive Committee for inclusion in the agenda for a meeting.
2. Private motions shall normally be submitted to the Executive Committee not less than one week before the meeting. Motions can be submitted during meetings at the discretion of the Chair.
3. The proposer of any motion may withdraw that motion at any point up until the discussion of that motion at the meeting.
4. Should neither the proposer nor seconder of any motion be able to attend the meeting at which their motion is to be discussed, the item will be withdrawn from the agenda unless:
 - a) Both proposer and seconder have notified the chair of their inability to attend the meeting in advance; and
 - b) The proposer has submitted a written statement not exceeding five hundred words explaining the motion to the room. This statement will be read to the meeting by the chair prior to discussion of the motion.
5. Procedure shall be in place so that all motions may be voted on by secret ballot, but, at the discretion of the Executive Committee and those proposing the motion, motions may be voted on by a show of hands or by general aye. Should a secret ballot take place this will be done using the D.S.U. online voting system after the meeting, to allow the participation of members not present in non-urgent votes. Results shall be of a simple majority.

Unless exceptional circumstances exist requiring a delay in its announcement, the result of any vote shall be declared by the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR or their authorised deputy as soon as the count has been completed and verified.

6. No financial motions may be brought to the MCR post facto, i.e., after the expense has been incurred except in quite exceptional and well-grounded cases.
7. Procedural motions shall require a show of hands and the support of twenty-five per cent of the ordinary members at the meeting in order to be discussed. Procedural motions may be brought in at any point in a meeting of the MCR.
8. Motions that are passed by the MCR shall have immediate effect.

V. ELECTIONS & RELATED MATTERS

1. The means by which executive officers of the MCR are to take up their roles is by election. In the exceptional event that an election cannot take place, the Convenor of the MCR is empowered by section III.A.8 of these standing orders to make appointments until such point as an election may take place.
2. The MCR Adviser and Bar Chair are not elected by the MCR members. The Adviser is a non-Exec role and is appointed by the incumbent (that is the outgoing, not newly elected) Exec committee in Easter term. The Bar Chair is also a non-Exec role and selected by College Office in an official application process.
3. In the case of the election of the executive officers of the MCR the following shall be eligible to stand:
 - a) all current ordinary members of the MCR; and
 - b) all members of the University in possession of the offer of a place to read for a higher degree in University College during the relevant academic year.
4. A valid nomination for election shall normally require a proposer and seconder from ordinary members of the MCR. Members of the Executive Committee are prohibited from proposing and seconding candidates for election, and from canvassing or husting on their behalf. Executive officers shall not seek to influence the vote in any way, at the risk of having the vote declared null and void.
5. In all elections the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR shall have jurisdiction over the conduct of the candidates' election campaigns. Breach of any rules pertaining to election campaigns in these standing orders, or any malicious misconduct as so deemed by the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR, shall result in the candidate being declared ineligible to stand for election by the Executive Committee, upon the recommendation of the Internal Affairs Officer.
6. In all elections an option to re-open nominations (R.O.N.) shall be available.

A. ELECTORAL PROCEDURE

1. Nominations shall open and close at midnight on the days specified in section V.C. Where not specified, nominations shall open two weeks before the date of the election and close one week before.
2. All candidates shall be allowed to canvass, in a manner deemed appropriate by the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR, from the close of nominations until the election.
3. Candidates may have a manifesto sent to the MCR e-mailing list, and may display one copy of this manifesto in the Maurice Tucker Room from the close of nominations until the election. Manifestos must conform to the following rules:
 - a) they must be one A4 page;

- b) they must contain the names of their proposer and seconder; and
 - c) other candidates shall not be mentioned.
4. Elections shall normally take place within an ordinary meeting of the MCR, where candidates will be invited to hust (as set out in section V.B). During elections, the President will pass the chair of the meeting to the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR, and resume it once the hustings are concluded.
 5. Voting shall be by single transferable voting (S.T.V.).
 6. Voting shall open for 24 hours from the close of the meeting using the online voting system hosted by the D.S.U. Voting shall be advertised to all members once open, to allow those not able to be present at the meeting to vote.
 7. The result shall be announced as soon as the count is complete. The Internal Affairs Officer shall circulate an e-mail notification of the results at the earliest opportunity.
 8. Should the vote result in a tie another vote shall be held. Should the vote again result in a tie, then the election shall be decided by the President of the MCR in consultation with the Convenor of the MCR. Should the vote for the President of the MCR again result in a tie, then the election shall be decided by the Convenor of the MCR.

B. HUSTINGS

1. Nominees shall not be required to hust. If a candidate does not attend, then they may submit a statement of up to two hundred and fifty words, which shall be read out, at the start of the hustings by the Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR.
2. In all elections in which nominees hust, the nominees for the post shall stand or be seated in a line and shall each hust for a maximum of two minutes.
3. Nominees for individual positions shall hust according to the alphabetical order of their surname.
4. There shall follow questions of the nominees that shall be directed at all and not at specific candidates. The Chair shall have the discretion to disallow inappropriate questions.
5. The nominees shall reply to questions in order as follows: the nominee who first husted shall reply first to the first question, and the second shall reply second, and so forth until all the nominees have replied; the second question shall be answered first by the second nominee and so forth until all nominees have replied to all of the questions asked of them.
6. A candidate shall not return to answer a question to which they have already addressed, either once another candidate has begun to answer or another question has been put.

C. DATES OF ELECTIONS & OFFICE

1. Elections at specified times:

a) The President, Treasurer, Social Chair, Secretary, Ball Chair, and Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR

- i) Nominations shall open on the Wednesday in the fifth week of the Easter Term, and shall close on the Wednesday in the sixth week of the Easter Term.
- ii) The election meeting shall be held on the Wednesday in the seventh week of the Easter Term, or on a day agreed by the Executive Committee and all nominees standing for election.
- iii) The victors shall take office one week after the result is announced, to allow for the previous incumbent to pass on such information, documents, and instruction as will be useful.

b) The Steward, Welfare Officer, Academic Officer, and Castle Community Action Representative of the MCR

- i) Nominations shall open on the Wednesday in the first week of the Michaelmas Term, and shall close on the Wednesday in the second week.
- ii) The election meeting shall be held on the Wednesday in the third week of the Michaelmas Term or on a day agreed by the Executive Committee and all nominees standing for election.
- iii) The victors shall take office twenty-four hours after the result is announced.

c) The MCR Adviser

- i) Appointed by the incumbent (that is the outgoing, not newly elected) MCR Executive Committee in Easter term and subsequently invited to fulfil the role

2. The Academic Officer, Social Chair, Ball Chair, and Welfare Officer of the MCR shall be responsible for the appointment, by election or selection as they see fit, of the Academic, Social, Ball and Welfare Committees.

VI. MCR FINANCES

1. Bank accounts and signatories

- a) There shall be a current account known as the 'University College Middle Common Room' account.
- b) The signatories shall be the Treasurer, the President, the Social Chair, the Ball Chair, the Convenor and another College Officer, who is to be appointed by the Convenor in consultation with the MCR to act as signatory only in his absence.
- c) At no time may a cheque be signed on behalf of the MCR without at least one signature from the President or Treasurer, and the informed consent of the other party.
- d) The account shall be used for the safekeeping of all moneys of which the MCR is in receipt.

2. MCR membership fee

- a) There shall be a membership fee for the MCR set each year by University College. The President and the Treasurer should meet in Easter term to discuss suggestions to College Office regarding fees.

VII. SANCTIONS AND RESIGNATION

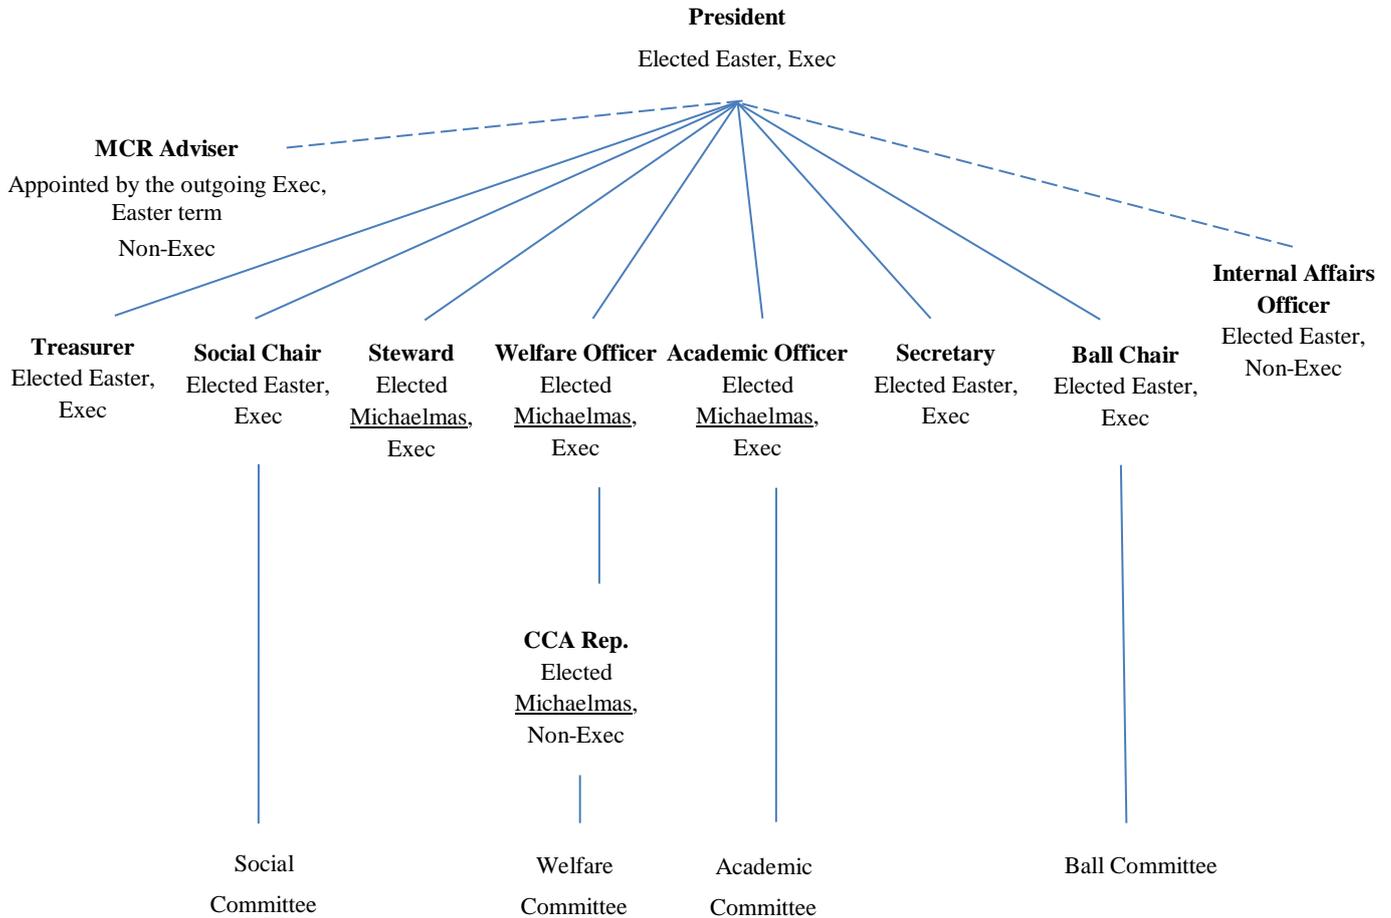

1. The Executive Committee reserves the right to suspend from duty, or compel to resign, any Executive Committee member who is, in its judgement, negligent or in breach of their duties or the trust of the MCR, subject to a majority vote of the Executive Committee and the agreement of the Convenor.
2. The ordinary members of the MCR may bring in a motion of no confidence in any executive or non-executive officer(s) of the MCR at any meeting of the MCR. The motion shall be voted on and must be passed by a two-thirds majority of those voting in order to be effective. If successful, the post shall be put up for election as soon as possible by the appropriate method outlined above.
3. The President of the MCR may fine members of the MCR for damage to or theft of MCR or University College property, or for behaviour unbecoming of an MCR member, subject to right of appeal to the Convenor of the MCR.
4. At the discretion of the Executive Committee any member who does not pay a fine thus imposed shall be denied access to and usage of any MCR facilities, subject to right of appeal to the MCR and the Convenor of the MCR.
5. All monies paid in settlement of fines shall be placed at the disposal of the Executive Committee for distribution to official MCR funds, should the fine be incurred against the MCR solely. Should the fine be imposed for actions that affect University College as a whole, the monies shall be distributed in a manner in agreement with the Convenor of the MCR.
6. Officers may at any time during their term of office tender their resignation in writing to the President of the MCR, or to the remaining members of the Executive Committee and the Convenor of the MCR should the President of the MCR be resigning.

VIII. STANDING ORDERS ARRANGEMENTS

1. Changes to these standing orders may be made only by way of previously submitted motions at meetings of the MCR. The vote shall use the D.S.U. online voting system, to allow all members, whether present at the meeting or not, to vote. Ratification requires a two-thirds majority of 10 % of the MCR. The voting period will be open for 24 hours.
2. Any changes shall take effect immediately after ratification, subject to approval from College Office. The Internal Affairs Officer to the MCR shall ensure that copies of the newly amended version are available as soon as possible.
3. The Internal Affairs Officer to the MCR shall be responsible for ensuring that all cross referencing within the document remains consistent and accurate after implementation of amendments to the standing orders.
4. The most up-to-date edition of these standing orders shall be available on the MCR website. The Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR shall be responsible for archiving a copy in the Durham University Library, Special Collections, collection: Durham University Records: Colleges.

IX. APPENDIX

1. Structure of the Offices of the MCR:

Changes drafted by Lenka Sediva, Internal Affairs Officer of the MCR 2017/2018, 13 October 2018.
